Far Above Rubies.

The Far Above Rubies brand is characterized by its minimalist vision for style.

The logo is inspired by the fashion industry in France and the Eiffel Tower. France is known to be a stronghold in modern-day fashion, as we have had a lot of designers emerged from there. Among them are Coco Chanel, Christian Dior, Hubert de Givenchy, Christian Louboutin, Christian Audigier, Louis Vuitton, Lacoste, and HERMES.

The A in the FAR logotype represents the word "Above" and it was inspired by the Eiffel Tower. The Eiffel Tower is the tallest structure in the city of Paris, France. It also represents one of the tallest and magnificent monuments in the world.

The choice of the typography presents a clean source and of easy reading in different applications. The primary color composition in plain gold conveys the elegance of the brand.

Inspiration

The Logo was inspired by the piano keys. A "B" was carved out from the inspiration. The letter "B" represents the first letter of the brand's name, thereby effectively making this concept the best and most creative option.

SISTERS' TRIBUTES

MY BELOVED BROTHER!

BROTHER'S TRIBUTE

GIt is a honor and privilege for me to pay tribute to a very special person, Dr. Herbert Orji. He was my big and only brother, my hero, who took fully responsibility for his brother, his wife, his son and his grand children. He was a true pillar of our family. In 1973, He was off to America even before he had any job lined up. He had to leave his wife and two sons behind him. He became a mythic figure to our entire family, whom we knew would come back to the fold. He was a man of great preference, for me, I called him 'Monsieur', my hero, who would fly over the ocean and take care of us, love the boy and take care with him.

He was really gifted in 1979, saved our family by removing us from poverty and also took care with him. He finally mapped out a plan for both of us to go to school in the United States. He immediately took charge and filled all of us with hope. He followed up and made it possible for us all to go to school. He is one today. My brother made it out of medical achievements in the world, made it possible for us to be here. I am so proud of him. His many achievements and accolades are well documented. Of all his accolades, the most important is his adherence to his Christian values. He loves our Lord Jesus Christ one in all His advice and actions. He loves our Lord Jesus Christ in the center of his life. He speaks to all and always makes it a point to offer to all. During his visits to our home, he championed us all.

Always keep our Christian ways, especially by attending church, even on the days that we could not attend church in the morning either because of our children's school or other responsibilities. He often insisted that we attended evening mass, even when it was held in Spanish, on days we could not understand the language.

He impressed upon me to always be fair to others and to "never cut corners" in all that I do. I recall that time that he compelled my secondary school to accept me into the school, but did not get a high score on an external exam called JAMB, which was a requirement to get into the school. He was very much broken about this set back, especially regarding one of my heroes, who went on to the university. My brother understood my pain and called me in for a great long talk about how to move forward. He was very kind and passed the exam on a retake and was able to further my education.

Big brother Herbert, even as I mourn for you at this moment, I can hear you encouraging me to be strong for the rest of our family. I love you and you will always be my hero for ever.

- Emeka Orji.
